

Save the Date

ACWA, in collaboration with the NSW Children's Court, invites you to:

Care Proceedings: Achieving the best outcomes for children

This full-day forum will be delivered by specialist Children's Court personnel and legal practitioners from the Department of Communities and Justice, Legal Aid, the Aboriginal Legal Service and private practice, together with senior representatives from the sector.

The forum will cover topics such as:

- the role of specialist Children's Court personnel
- the obligations of the model litigant
- the role of service providers in care proceedings
- obtaining the best evidence—ensuring input from service providers
- document exchange before and during care proceedings
- delegated decision-making responsibilities during and after court proceedings

Date: 2 March 2020

Time: 8:30am–4:30pm

Venue: The Salvation Army
Sydney Congress Hall
140 Elizabeth Street Sydney

Confirm your attendance